

Confetti Handbook

Phone: 619-239-1311

Advisors:

Mr. Rayme Sciaroni: rayme@juniortheatre.com

Mrs. Kim Heil: kim@juniortheatre.com

"I regard the theatre as the greatest of all art forms, the most immediate way in which a human being can share with another the sense of what it is to be a human being"- Thornton Wilder

CONFETTI GUIDELINES 2016

Rights and Responsibilities

Rights:

- Membership in Confetti and all Confetti activities
- Access to workshops organized by JT staff
- Input on planning workshops with the Confetti Advisor(s)
- 50% discount on all classes and/or workshops during Fall, Winter, and Spring sessions
- Audition eligibility for all Fall, Winter, and Spring shows without signing up for a class or a camp

Responsibilities:

- Pay the annual fee of $330 no later than September 30
- Abide by Confetti attendance policies
- Review and become familiar with this handbook
- Communicate any Confetti-related concerns and/or questions to the Advisor(s) and/or the Executive Board

General Rules & Regulations:

- All members must abide by all Junior Theatre rules, policies, and regulations.
- All members must refrain from overt displays of public affection on JT premises or events.
- All members must clean up after Confetti events and restore rooms as necessary.
- All members must maintain a respectful and professional manner at all times.

Attendance:

- All members must arrive ON TIME at all meetings, rehearsals, and events.
- All members are permitted no more than four (4) absences, with a maximum of one (1) unexcused absence.
- Violations of the attendance policy will be reviewed by the Advisor(s) and the Executive Board and are subject to disciplinary action.

EXCUSED ABSENCES:

Students are permitted up to 4 excused absences. Excused absences are defined as:

- A. Illness. A parent/guardian must call/email the Advisor(s) or the Executive Board to report the illness.
- B. Bereavement/Family Emergency. A parent/guardian must call/email the Advisor(s) or the Executive Board to report this type of issue.
- C. Pre-arranged conflicts. Such conflicts must be submitted to the Executive Board before the monthly calendar is distributed.

D. Observance of a religious holiday or ceremony. Such observances must be on file with the Advisor(s) and the Executive Board.

Guests:

- No guests, including parents, are permitted to attend meetings and events unless previously arranged with the Confetti Advisor(s).

Funds:

- All Confetti expenses must be approved by the Advisor(s) and the Executive Board.

Drugs/Alcohol:

- Junior Theatre has a zero-tolerance drug and alcohol policy for students. If you suspect that a student is under the influence of drugs or alcohol, please contact the Advisor(s) immediately.

Disciplinary Action:

- Any infraction of the Confetti handbook may result in dismissal from the group without a refund.
- If a student's behavior is in question in any way, they may be cut from Confetti.

Confetti Handbook

Signature Page

I _____ (print student name) have read the attached Confetti Handbook and I agree to abide by the policies and procedures as stated in therein. I understand that my failure to comply with the rules and regulations may result in my removal from Confetti.

Student Signature and date

I, _____ (print parent/guardian name) have read the attached Confetti Handbook and understand the rules and regulations therein. I further understand and agree by assigning my initials to the following items:

_____ 1. I agree to pay the Annual fee of $330, due by September 30.

_____ 2. My child and I understand that regular meeting and event attendance is mandatory, with no more than 4 total absences.

_____ 3. I understand that if my child is removed from the Confetti, I will not receive a refund.

Parent or Guardian Signature & Date